srubenstein@mickesgoldman.com

Sarah W. Rubenstein has more than ten years of experience successfully representing clients in state and federal courts. Although her practice is primarily focused on business litigation, Sarah has advised a wide range of clients in many areas, including contract disputes, intellectual property matters, class action proceedings, franchise disputes, toxic torts and environmental property damage cases, and insurance claim and coverage cases.

Sarah also has a subspecialty in environmental law and litigation. She has experience with Clean Air Act and Clean Water Act citizen suits and permit proceedings, has assisted clients with Superfund waste cleanup and cost-recovery actions, and has both pursued and defended benzene and other toxic tort cases.

Sarah is a graduate, magna cum laude, of Amherst College ('92), and the University of Chicago Law School ('97), where she was a staff member for the journal, The University of Chicago Law School Roundtable.
