Ernest G. Trakas has practiced law for more than 25 years, concentrating in the areas of civil rights, and disability laws. Particular areas of expertise include the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Missouri Human Rights Act and constitutional issues relating to these measures. He has extensive experience handling federal court trials and appeals as well as administrative proceedings on civil and disability rights based claims.

Ernie represents public school districts, colleges and universities in labor and employment and education on such matters as race/gender/disability based employment discrimination claims, employee termination, students' rights and discipline, special education and civil rights. He also serves private entities in labor and employment matters.

Ernie has litigated numerous race gender and disability-based employment and education cases, consistently obtaining favorable results for clients.
